Workplace Rules:

Management has fixed Workplace - Office Rules applicable to all employees/Consultant without any reservations. These General Work Rules are the minimum acceptable standard code of conduct expected of all employees. Any employee who fails to adhere to these work rules or who violates such rules may be subject to any disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

These work rules are applicable to All "SSPL employees/Consultants", whether Permanent, Probations and Contractual.

1) Working Days & Working Hours:

Working Days

- The Company follows a five (5) day work week.
- Saturday and Sunday shall be observed as weekly offs, unless business exigencies require otherwise.

Working Hours

- Normal working hours for all employees and consultants shall be 8 hours a day.
- Working hours may be modified by the Company based on business requirements, with prior intimation wherever feasible.

Lunch Break

- Employees/consultants shall be entitled to a lunch break between ____ PM to ____ PM, subject to work exigencies and operational requirements.
- The timing and duration of the lunch break may vary depending on departmental needs.

Work on Weekly Offs / Holidays

- In case of urgent or critical business requirements, employees/consultants may be required to work on weekly offs or declared holidays.
- Such support shall be provided on a priority basis, subject to approval from the reporting manager and in accordance with company policy.

Policy Administration

- The HR Department shall administer this policy.
- The Company reserves the right to revise working hours or working days in line with operational or statutory requirements.

2) Leave Policy:

Leave Year

- All leave entitlements shall be calculated and governed on a Calendar Year basis,

i.e., from 1st January to 31st December.

Applicability

- This policy is applicable to all confirmed employees and consultants, unless otherwise specified in their engagement terms.

Leave Application & Approval Process

- All employees/consultants must submit a Leave Application duly approved and signed by the Department Head and HR Department (HRD) at least seven (7) days in advance prior to proceeding on leave.
- In case of medical or other emergencies, intimation must be given immediately via phone call to both the HR Department and the Department Head.
- Upon resuming duty, the employee/consultant must submit the Leave Application along with the relevant Medical Certificate, wherever applicable.

Leave Planning & Lapse

- Employees are entitled to 24 annual earn leaves (2 per month)
- For Consultants working days less than 20 days, pay out to be deducted.
- Employees/consultants are required to plan their Privilege Leaves (PLs) in advance and ensure that they are availed within the same calendar year.
- Accumulation of leave is not permitted.
- Leave encashment is not allowed under any circumstances.
- Any unutilized leave at the end of the calendar year shall automatically lapse.

Sick Leave & Medical Certificate

- In case of sickness exceeding two (2) consecutive days, the concerned employee/consultant must submit a medical certificate issued by a Doctor or a Registered Medical Practitioner.

Compensatory Off (Comp-Off)

- Compensatory Off shall be granted only if the employee/consultant has worked for a minimum of eight (8) hours on a declared weekly off or holiday, with prior approval.
- Approved Comp-Off must be availed within fifteen (15) days from the date of approval.
- If not availed within the stipulated period, the Comp-Off shall automatically lapse.

Leave Communication & Handover

- Employees/consultants must ensure that their colleagues, seniors, and Heads of Department (HODs) are informed well in advance about their leave.
- All key responsibilities and critical tasks must be properly handed over before proceeding on leave.

Leave Records & Leave Cards

- The Company shall provide a Leave Card to each employee/consultant for maintaining leave records.
- Separate leave cards shall be maintained for each employee/consultant.
- Leave cards must be updated on a weekly basis or earlier, as applicable, and are subject to verification by HR.

Policy Administration

- The HR Department shall be responsible for administering and monitoring this policy.
- The Company reserves the right to amend, modify, or withdraw this policy at any time based on organizational or statutory requirements.

A.Maternity Leave:-

Policy Objective
The Company is committed to supporting female employees during maternity by providing maternity benefits in accordance with the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961, as amended from time to time.
Scope & Applicability
This policy applies to all eligible female employees of the Company wherever the provisions of the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 are applicable.
Eligibility Criteria
A female employee shall be eligible for maternity leave and maternity benefit if she has worked with the Company for a minimum of eighty (80) days in the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the expected date of delivery.
Duration of Maternity Leave

- An eligible employee is entitled to twenty-six (26) weeks of maternity leave.
- Up to eight (8) weeks of maternity leave may be availed before the expected date of delivery, and the remaining leave after childbirth.
- Maternity leave shall be granted strictly in accordance with the provisions of the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961.

Maternity Benefit (Payment)

- During the maternity leave period, the employee shall be paid maternity benefit, and not salary, as prescribed under the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961.
- The maternity benefit shall be paid at the rate of the average daily wage, as defined under the Act.
- The benefit shall be paid through the Company's regular payroll or statutory payment mechanism.

Payment Timing of Maternity Benefit

- For the period of maternity leave availed prior to the expected date of delivery, the maternity benefit shall be paid in advance, upon submission of the required notice and medical certification.
- For the period of maternity leave after delivery, the maternity benefit shall be paid within forty-eight (48) hours of submission of proof of childbirth, as prescribed under the Act.
- Payment shall be made in instalments or lump sum, as per statutory requirements and company practice.

Medical Bonus

- Where pre-natal confinement and post-natal care are not provided free of charge by the Company, the employee shall be entitled to receive a medical bonus, as prescribed under the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961.

- The medical bonus shall be paid at the statutory rate applicable at the time of delivery, subject to submission of relevant medical documents, if required.

Procedure for Availing Maternity Leave

- The employee must submit a written application to her reporting manager and the HR department, indicating the expected date of delivery and proposed maternity leave period.
- Medical certification or proof of pregnancy/delivery may be required as per statutory provisions.
- Any change in the maternity leave schedule must be promptly communicated to HR.

Responsibilities of Reporting Managers

Reporting managers are responsible for:

- Intimating the HR department in a timely manner about employees who have availed or are expected to avail maternity leave.
- Ensuring proper work handover and continuity of operations during the employee's absence.

Return to Work

Upon completion of maternity leave, the employee shall be entitled to return to work in accordance with applicable laws and Company policies.

Compliance with Law

This policy shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961, and amendments made thereto from time to time. In case of any inconsistency, statutory provisions shall prevail.

Policy Administration & Review

The HR Department shall administer this policy. The Company reserves the right to amend, modify, or withdraw this policy to ensure continued statutory compliance.

B. Paternity Leave Policy (This is the optional policy, this is not mandatory as per the act)

Policy Objective

The Company recognizes the importance of supporting employees/Consultant during parenthood and provides paternity leave to eligible male employees to enable them to care for their spouse and newborn child.

Scope & Applicability

This policy applies to all confirmed male employees/Consultant of the Company.

Eligibility Criteria

- A male employee/Consultant shall be eligible for paternity leave upon the birth of his child.
- The employee must be on the Company's rolls at the time of childbirth.

Duration of Paternity Leave

- Eligible employees/Consultant are entitled to _____ days of paternity leave (commonly 5 to 15 days, as per company policy).
- Paternity leave may be availed within _____ days from the date of childbirth (Commonly within 30 days)

- The leave may be taken in one continuous stretch unless otherwise approved by the reporting manager.

Pay During Paternity Leave

- Paternity leave shall be paid leave, unless specified otherwise in the employee's/Consultant's appointment terms.
- Payment during paternity leave shall be made as per normal payroll practices.

Procedure for Availing Paternity Leave

- The employee/Consultant must submit a leave application to the reporting manager and HR Department at least seven (7) days in advance, wherever possible.
- In case of emergency, prior intimation must be given to the reporting manager and HR.
- Proof of childbirth may be required for records.

Combination with Other Leave

- Paternity leave cannot be carried forward or encashed.
- Unavailed paternity leave shall lapse automatically after the specified eligibility period.
- Paternity leave cannot be combined with Compensatory Off.

Return to Work

Upon completion of approved paternity leave, the employee/Consultant shall resume duties as per normal work arrangements.

Policy Administration

The HR Department shall administer this policy. The Company reserves the right to amend, modify, or withdraw this policy based on organizational requirements or changes in law.

3) Work From Home / Remote Work Policy

Policy Objective

To provide flexibility in work arrangements while ensuring productivity, data security, and accountability.

Scope & Applicability

This policy applies to eligible employees, Probationers, Trainee, Contract staff, Consultants whose roles permit remote work, subject to management approval.

Eligibility Criteria

Eligibility for Work From Home shall depend on:

• Nature of role
• Performance record
• Business and client requirements

WFH Guidelines

• Employees must remain available during regular working hours.
• All Company policies, including confidentiality and data security, shall remain applicable.
• Official work must be carried out using Company-approved systems and tools.

Approval Process

WFH requests must be approved by the reporting manager and HR.

Withdrawal of WFH

The Company reserves the right to withdraw WFH privileges at any time based on business needs.

4) Code of Conduct & Ethics Policy

Policy Objective

To define standards of professional conduct and ethical behavior expected from employees.

Scope & Applicability

Applicable to all employees, Probationers, Trainee, Contract staff, Consultants of the Company.

Standards of Conduct

Employees shall:

• Act with integrity and honesty
• Maintain professionalism at the workplace
• Comply with Company policies and applicable laws

Unacceptable Conduct

• Harassment or discrimination
• Theft, fraud, or misrepresentation
• Conflict of interest
• Misuse of Company resources

Disciplinary Action

Violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action, including termination of employment.

Policy Administration

Administered by HR in coordination with management.

6) Information Security & Data Protection Policy

Policy Objective

To safeguard Company and client information from unauthorized access, loss, or misuse.

Scope & Applicability

Applicable to all employees, Probationers, Trainee, Contract staff, Consultants who access or handle Company data.

Information Security Responsibilities

Employees shall:

• Protect login credentials
• Access data strictly on a need-to-know basis
• Follow secure data handling practices

Confidentiality Obligations

All information obtained during employment shall remain confidential, both during and after employment.

Violation & Consequences

Any breach of this policy may lead to disciplinary and legal action.

7) IT Asset & Acceptable Use Policy

Policy Objective

To ensure responsible and secure use of Company-provided IT assets.

Scope & Applicability

Applicable to all employees, Probationers, Trainee, Contract staff, Consultants using Company IT resources.

IT Assets Covered

• Laptops, desktops, peripherals
• Email, internet, and software
• Cloud and internal systems

Acceptable Use

• IT assets must be used strictly for official purposes
• Installation of unauthorized software is prohibited

Return of Assets

All IT assets must be returned in good condition upon separation.

8) Whistle Blower Policy

Policy Objective

The objective of this policy is to provide a transparent mechanism for employees and stakeholders to report genuine concerns about unethical behavior, misconduct, fraud, or violation of laws and Company policies, and to ensure that such concerns are addressed in a fair and timely manner.

Scope & Applicability

This policy applies to all employees of the Company, including permanent employees, probationers, trainees, consultants, and any other persons associated with the Company.

Definition of Whistle Blowing

Whistle blowing refers to the reporting of any suspected or actual improper activity, unethical conduct, fraud, or violation of legal or Company policies by an employee or any person associated with the Company.

Reportable Concerns

A whistle blower may report concerns relating to, but not limited to, the following:

• Financial fraud or misrepresentation
• Bribery or corruption
• Misuse of Company assets or resources
• Violation of Company policies or Code of Conduct
• Breach of confidentiality or data protection obligations
• Abuse of authority
• Any act that may adversely affect the Company’s reputation or operations

Protection of Whistle Blowers

• The Company shall ensure that no employee who reports a concern in good faith shall be subjected to retaliation, harassment, discrimination, or adverse employment action.
• Any act of retaliation against a whistle blower shall be treated as a serious disciplinary offence.
• Protection under this policy shall not extend to disclosures made with malicious intent or false allegations.

Confidentiality

• The identity of the whistle blower shall be kept confidential to the extent possible, subject to the need for investigation or legal requirements.

• All reports shall be handled with strict confidentiality and sensitivity.

Reporting Mechanism

• Whistle blowers may report concerns in writing to the designated authority, such as the Compliance Officer, Ethics Committee, or HR Head, through email or sealed written communication.
• Anonymous complaints may be considered at the discretion of the Company, provided sufficient information is furnished to enable investigation.

Investigation Procedure

• All reported concerns shall be promptly reviewed and assessed.
• An internal inquiry or investigation shall be initiated where deemed necessary.
• The investigation shall be conducted in a fair, unbiased, and confidential manner.
• The whistle blower may be contacted for additional information, if required.

Action on Proven Misconduct

• If the investigation confirms the reported misconduct, appropriate disciplinary or corrective action shall be taken in accordance with Company policies and applicable laws.
• Actions may include warning, suspension, termination of employment, or legal proceedings, as deemed appropriate.

False or Malicious Complaints

• Any whistle blower who knowingly makes a false or malicious complaint may be subject to disciplinary action.
• Such action shall be taken after due inquiry.

Role of Management

Management shall ensure:
• Awareness of this policy among employees
• Prompt and fair handling of whistle blower complaints
• Protection of whistle blowers from retaliation

Policy Administration & Review

The HR Department or designated Compliance Authority shall administer this policy.
The Company reserves the right to amend, modify, or withdraw this policy at any time to ensure compliance with applicable laws and best practices.

9) PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT POLICY

Policy Objective

The Performance Management Policy aims to establish a structured and transparent framework for managing employee performance, aligning individual goals with organizational objectives, encouraging continuous improvement, and supporting employee development and career growth.

Scope & Applicability

This policy applies to all employees of the Company, unless otherwise specified in the appointment letter or governed by specific contractual terms.

A) PERFORMANCE

Performance refers to the extent to which an employee effectively fulfills assigned roles and responsibilities in accordance with defined objectives, standards, and timelines.
• Employee performance shall be assessed based on job responsibilities, quality of work, productivity, adherence to timelines, behavioral competencies, and compliance with Company policies.

• Performance expectations shall be communicated at the beginning of the performance cycle.
• Employees are expected to actively contribute to individual, team, and organizational goals.

B) APPRAISALS
• Performance appraisals shall be conducted at intervals determined by the Company, typically on an annual basis.
• The appraisal process shall involve self-assessment, manager evaluation, and review by higher management, where applicable.
• Appraisal outcomes shall be documented and communicated to employees.
• Employees shall be provided an opportunity to discuss their performance and receive constructive feedback.

C) INCREMENTS
• Salary increments, if applicable, shall be linked to individual performance, business performance, and Company policies.
• Increments are not a matter of right and shall be granted at the discretion of management.
• The effective date and quantum of increments shall be determined by the Company based on appraisal outcomes and financial considerations.

D) JOB ROTATIONS
• The Company may implement job rotations to enhance employee skills, improve operational flexibility, and support career development.
• Job rotation may be temporary or permanent, depending on business requirements.
• Such rotations shall be communicated in advance and shall not result in a reduction of employee grade or salary unless otherwise agreed.

E) PURPOSE
The purpose of this policy is to:
• Encourage high performance and accountability
• Identify training and development needs
• Support career progression and succession planning
• Align individual objectives with organizational goals
• Promote a culture of continuous feedback and improvement

F) RESPONSIBILITY OF MANAGERS & SUPERVISORS
Managers and supervisors are responsible for:
• Setting clear and measurable performance goals
• Providing regular feedback and guidance
• Conducting fair and objective performance evaluations
• Supporting employee development through coaching and training
• Ensuring transparency and consistency in the appraisal process

G) 360-DEGREE PERFORMANCE FEEDBACK
• The Company may implement a 360-degree performance feedback mechanism as part of the appraisal process.
• Feedback may be collected from peers, subordinates, reporting managers, and other relevant stakeholders.

• The purpose of 360-degree feedback is developmental and aimed at improving behavioral and leadership competencies.
• All feedback shall be handled confidentially and used responsibly.

Confidentiality of Performance Records
All performance-related records shall be treated as confidential and accessed only by authorized personnel.
Policy Administration & Review
The HR Department shall administer this policy.
The Company reserves the right to amend, modify, or withdraw this policy at any time to align with business needs and applicable laws.

10) Employment of Relatives (Spouse) Policy

Policy Objective
The objective of this policy is to prevent conflicts of interest, ensure professional working relationships, and maintain fairness, objectivity, and transparency in business operations.
Scope & Applicability
This policy applies to all employees of the Company, including permanent employees, probationers, trainees, and contractual staff, Consultants.
Policy Statement
The Company discourages the employment of immediate relatives, including husband and wife, in the same organization where such employment may give rise to conflicts of interest, favoritism, or operational challenges.
Employment of Husband and Wife
• As a general rule, husband and wife shall not be employed together in the Company.
• This restriction applies to employment in the same establishment, department, function, or reporting hierarchy.
• The intent of this policy is to avoid situations involving direct or indirect reporting relationships, influence over employment decisions, or access to sensitive information.
Disclosure Requirement
• Employees are required to disclose at the time of joining, or upon marriage, if their spouse is employed with the Company.
• Failure to disclose such information may be treated as a violation of Company policy.
Exceptions
• Any exception to this policy may be considered solely at the discretion of management based on business requirements.
• In the event an exception is granted, the Company shall ensure that:
– There is no direct or indirect reporting relationship
– There is no conflict of interest
– Adequate controls are in place to maintain objectivity
Existing Employees
• If two employees marry during the course of their employment, management may review the situation.

• Based on business requirements, one of the employees may be transferred to another department, role, or location.
• If transfer is not feasible, management may take an appropriate decision in consultation with the employees concerned.

Conflict of Interest

Employees must avoid any situation that may compromise professional judgment or create perceived or actual conflicts of interest.

Non-Discrimination

This policy is intended solely to safeguard organizational interests and shall not be applied in a discriminatory or arbitrary manner.

Policy Administration & Review

The HR Department shall administer this policy.
The Company reserves the right to amend, modify, or withdraw this policy at any time based on business needs and applicable laws.

11) PREVENTION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY

Policy Objective

The objective of this policy is to provide a safe, secure, and respectful working environment free from sexual harassment and to establish a mechanism for prevention, prohibition, and redressal of sexual harassment at the workplace.

Scope & Applicability

This policy is framed in accordance with the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 and shall be applicable to all workplaces of the Company.

A) APPLICABILITY TO EMPLOYEES

This policy shall apply to:
• All permanent, temporary, probationary, contractual, and part-time employees
• Trainees, interns, apprentices, and consultants
• Employees working from office, client locations, or in remote/virtual work environments
• Any person visiting the workplace, including vendors, customers, or clients

The policy covers incidents of sexual harassment occurring at the workplace, including but not limited to:
• Office premises
• Client or customer locations
• Work-related travel
• Virtual or digital work platforms
• Any place visited by the employee during the course of employment

B) PROCEDURE

Internal Complaints Committee (ICC)

• The Company shall constitute an Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) in accordance with the provisions of the Act.
• The ICC shall consist of a Presiding Officer, members from amongst employees, and an external member, as required by law.
• Details of the ICC shall be displayed at the workplace.

Filing of Complaint
• An aggrieved woman may submit a written complaint to the ICC within three (3) months from the date of the incident.
• In case of a series of incidents, the complaint may be filed within three (3) months from the date of the last incident.
• The ICC may extend the time limit for filing the complaint if sufficient cause is shown.
Conciliation
• Before initiating an inquiry, the ICC may, at the request of the aggrieved woman, take steps to settle the matter through conciliation.
• Monetary settlement shall not be the basis of conciliation.
Inquiry Process
• If conciliation is not requested or fails, the ICC shall conduct a formal inquiry.
• The inquiry shall be conducted in accordance with the principles of natural justice.
• Both parties shall be given a reasonable opportunity to be heard.
• The inquiry shall be completed within ninety (90) days.
Interim Relief
During the pendency of the inquiry, the ICC may recommend interim measures, including:
• Transfer of either party
• Grant of leave to the aggrieved woman
• Any other relief deemed appropriate
Inquiry Report & Action
• The ICC shall submit its inquiry report to the employer within ten (10) days of completion of the inquiry.
• Based on the findings, the employer shall take appropriate action within sixty (60) days.
• Actions may include warning, suspension, termination, or any other disciplinary measure as per Company policy.
Confidentiality
• The identity of the complainant, respondent, witnesses, and details of the proceedings shall be kept strictly confidential.
• Breach of confidentiality shall attract disciplinary action.
Protection Against Retaliation
The Company shall ensure that no adverse action is taken against the complainant or witnesses for filing or supporting a complaint in good faith.
False or Malicious Complaints
• If a complaint is found to be malicious or knowingly false, the ICC may recommend appropriate action against the complainant.
• Mere inability to substantiate a complaint shall not attract action.

Policy Administration & Review
This policy shall be administered by the HR Department and the Internal Complaints Committee. The Company reserves the right to amend or modify this policy in accordance with changes in law or business requirements.

12) Exit & Separation Policy

Policy Objective

The objective of this policy is to establish a clear and structured process for separation of employees from the Company, ensuring smooth transition of responsibilities, compliance with statutory requirements, and timely settlement of dues.

Scope & Applicability

This policy applies to all employees of the Company, including permanent employees, probationers, trainees, contractual staff, and consultants, unless otherwise governed by specific contractual terms.

Modes of Separation

Employee separation from the Company may occur under the following circumstances:

• Resignation
• Completion or termination of contract
• Retirement
• Termination due to misconduct or performance-related issues
• Separation due to business or organizational requirements
• Death or permanent disability

Notice Period

• The notice period applicable to an employee/Consultants shall be as specified in the appointment letter or employment contract i.e. 2 Months' prior notice period.
• The Company may, at its discretion, waive the notice period or accept payment in lieu of notice, subject to business requirements.
• In cases of termination for misconduct, the Company reserves the right to terminate employment without notice, in accordance with applicable laws and Company policies.

Resignation Process

• Employees are required to submit their resignation in writing to their reporting manager and the HR Department.
• The resignation shall be considered effective from the date of acceptance by the Company.
• During the notice period, employees are expected to continue to perform their duties diligently and complete all assigned handover responsibilities.

Exit Formalities

All separating employees shall be required to complete the following exit formalities:

• Proper knowledge transfer and handover of duties to the assigned person
• Clearance from all concerned departments, including HR, Finance, IT, and Administration
• Return of all Company property, including IT assets, ID cards, documents, and access credentials
• Completion of exit interview, where applicable

Full & Final Settlement

• The Company shall process the full and final settlement of all dues, including unpaid salary, leave encashment (if applicable), incentives, and statutory payments, in accordance with applicable laws.
• Final settlement shall be completed within the statutory timelines prescribed under labour laws.
• Any outstanding dues payable by the employee to the Company may be adjusted against the final settlement.

Relieving & Experience Letter

• Upon completion of all exit formalities and clearance, the Company shall issue a relieving letter and experience certificate, as applicable.
• Issuance of such documents is subject to successful completion of the exit process.

Confidentiality & Post-Separation Obligations
• Employees shall continue to be bound by confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations even after separation.
• Any breach of confidentiality post separation may attract legal action.
Policy Administration & Review
The HR Department shall administer this policy.
The Company reserves the right to amend, modify, or withdraw this policy at any time to align with statutory requirements and business needs.

13) Background Verification and Documentation Requirements for Employment,

Policy Objective
The Company is committed to ensuring a safe, compliant, and trustworthy work environment by conducting background verification and collecting necessary employment-related documents in a fair, lawful, and transparent manner.
Scope & Applicability
This policy applies to all employees, Consultants of the Company, wherever background verification is applicable.
Background Verification Requirements
• The Company may conduct background verification of employees, consultants either directly or through authorized third-party agencies.
• Background verification may include verification of identity, address, educational qualifications, employment history, criminal records (where permissible by law), and any other checks deemed necessary for the role.
• Continuation of employment may be subject to satisfactory completion of background verification.
• Any adverse findings shall be reviewed fairly, and the candidate/employee shall be provided an opportunity to explain or clarify discrepancies.
Documentation Requirements
• All candidates/employees shall submit true, complete, and accurate documents as required by the Company at the time of joining or during employment.
• The documents may include, but are not limited to:
– Proof of Government identity (Mandatory)- Aadhar Card, Pan Card.
Optional ID Proofs – Voter ID, Passport, Driving license
– Proof of address (If different from ID proof) -utility bill, Rent agreement, Recent bank passbook/Statement – Educational certificates and mark sheets – 10th , 12th, Graduation, post-graduation, and other professional certificates if applicable.
– Previous employment documents- offer letters, experience letters, relieving and Experience letters, Last 3 months salary slips, EPFO UAN Number.
– Fitness Certificate (Mandatory) – MBBS doctor fitness certificate and if any regular medication should be disclose prior in written with Family Doctor Name and Contact number for Emergency situation.

• Submission of forged, misleading, or incorrect documents may lead to withdrawal of offer, disciplinary action, or termination of employment.

Timing of Verification and Document Submission

• Background verification may be conducted post-employment, as per Company practice.

• Employees, Consultants shall submit all required documents within the timelines specified by the HR Department.

• Failure to submit documents within the stipulated time may impact onboarding, confirmation of employment, or continuation of service.

Confidentiality and Data Protection

• All personal information and documents collected for background verification shall be treated as confidential.

• Such information shall be used solely for employment-related purposes and handled in accordance with applicable data protection and privacy laws.

• Access to records shall be restricted to authorized personnel only.

Compliance with Law

This policy shall be governed by and construed in accordance with applicable labour laws, data protection laws, and other relevant statutory provisions. In case of any inconsistency, statutory provisions shall prevail.

Policy Administration & Review

The HR Department shall administer this policy. The Company reserves the right to amend, modify, or withdraw this policy to ensure continued legal and business compliance.

14) Employment Benefits Policy

Policy Objective

The Company is committed to providing fair and competitive employment benefits to its employees in order to promote employee well-being, work–life balance, and professional development.

Scope & Applicability

This policy applies to all eligible employees of the Company, unless otherwise specified in individual employment contracts or governed by statutory provisions.

Health Insurance Benefit

• The Company shall provide health insurance coverage to eligible employees through HDFC Ergo General Insurance Company Limited, as per the terms and conditions of the applicable policy.

• The scope of coverage, sum insured, inclusions, exclusions, and eligibility shall be governed by the insurance policy issued by HDFC Ergo and communicated to employees from time to time.

• Employees shall comply with all documentation and enrollment requirements prescribed by the insurer and the Company.

Leave Benefits

• Eligible employees shall be entitled to two (2) paid leaves per month, subject to Company leave rules and approval process.

• Leave accrual, carry forward, and utilization shall be governed by applicable laws and internal guidelines, as notified by the Company from time to time.

• All leave requests must be applied for and approved in accordance with the Company's leave management process.

Holiday Entitlement

• Employees shall be entitled to holidays as per the Company's Holiday Calendar, which shall be issued annually.

• The holiday calendar may include national holidays, festival holidays, and other holidays as determined by the Company in compliance with applicable laws.
• Any changes to the holiday calendar shall be communicated by the HR Department.

Training and Development

• The Company shall provide basic and advanced training programs to employees to enhance professional skills, job knowledge, and overall performance.
• Participation in training programs may be mandatory or optional, depending on business requirements and role responsibilities.
• Training schedules, content, and mode of delivery shall be determined by the Company from time to time.

Compliance with Law

This policy shall be governed by and construed in accordance with applicable labour and employment laws. In case of any inconsistency, statutory provisions shall prevail.

Policy Administration & Review

The HR Department shall administer this policy. The Company reserves the right to amend, modify, or withdraw this policy to ensure continued statutory compliance and alignment with business nee